

§ 1 General provisions

1. These Regulations define the rules of using the PartyFinder application.
2. The owner of the application is LEA24 Sp. z o. o. with headquarters in Toruń, Chrobrego 95, entered into the National Court Register under KRS number: 0000594438, (hereinafter referred to as the "application owner").

§ 2 Technical requirements necessary to use the PartyFinder application

An Android or iOS mobile device is required to use the PartyFinder mobile application offered to users of the services provided by event organizers and entertainment venues (PartySpots).

§ 3 Use of the application

1. The use of the mobile application by individual users is possible after downloading the application from the online store. The use of the mobile application is free.
2. The application gives Users the opportunity to view advertising offers and information about events organized by PartySpots,. Advertising offers are provided in the form of photos, videos, keywords and text descriptions about the event or entertainment venue.
3. The PartyFinder application allows Users to build a network of Friends with whom a given User can share information about the place (PartySpot) where they are spending their free time at the moment.
4. Using the Application, the User may check which of the other Application Users registered in the system as his Friends confirmed their presence at a given event or in a given place. The User may also invite other Users of the application to a given event or to a given venue.
5. Using the Application, the User may accept an invitation from a PartySpot to use its services or to a specific event, provided that they belong to the group of Users who observe a given PartySpot.
6. PartyFinder users can participate in user rankings. The rules for assigning points in the rankings are set out in the PartyFinder Ranking Regulations.
7. To view the offer of event organizers and owners of entertainment venues (PartySpots), the mobile application itself, without a User account, is sufficient. However, using the PartyFinder mobile application without a User account does not allow the User to track the activity of friends or PartSpots, nor does it allow the User to participate in rankings.
8. The user can create his user account directly in the PartyFinder application or by logging in via the Facebook application.
9. Each User, even those who do not have an account in the PartyFinder application, can browse the offer of event organizers and owners of entertainment venues (PartySpots) using the Events and PartySpots tabs.
10. Thanks to the PartyFinder mobile application, the User may invite other people to use the application and invite other Users to events and entertainment venues.
11. The user can add his friends to the application, who appear in the Friends tab. The application also allows you to download friends from the Facebook application and select which of them are to remain Friends also in the PartyFinder application. Thanks to the PartyFinder application, Users can check which of their Friends are currently participating in an event posted on the PartyFinder application.

12. The application gives the Users who have PartyFinder account the opportunity to participate in the PartyFinder Users' rankings. The ranking shows the activity of a given User by assigning the appropriate number of points for specific activities performed with the PartyFinder application.
13. The application awards points to Users who use it every day, use it to log into events and entertainment venues, invite other people to use the application, and use it to invite other Users to events and entertainment venues.
14. Users may also exchange points collected for repeated logging in via PartyFinder application to the same entertainment venue for items from a promotional offer prepared by this venue. Users can make such an exchange under the condition that the entertainment venue is an active participant in the Partyfinder program at that time. It is at the discretion of the event organizers and the entertainment venue owners to prepare such a promotional offer and to determine the number of points required to collect that can be redeemed for items from such an offer.
15. PartyFinder application owner does not allow sharing prohibited content, that is:
  - a. containing obscene words or phrases,
  - b. inciting to violence,
  - c. racist, anti-Semitic, chauvinistic, vulgar or offensive,
  - d. violating the principles of social coexistence,
  - e. offending public figures or other persons participating in the social discourse,
  - f. violating copyrights,
  - g. written only in capital letters,
  - h. containing a long string of punctuation marks.
16. In the event of violation of the provisions contained in point 15, the owner of the PartyFinder application reserves the right to block the user's account.
